News Letter No. 9
19 June 2015

Gaabo Motho Tenors and Joseph Clark

Thank you to everyone who attended the Soup & Sherry evening on Friday, 19 June 2015. We also want to thank our hostesses for your kindness and love. All enjoyed the fancy evening very much and our guest artists delivered fabulous performances. Thanks again !!

Our school's choir and percussion band had a very busy short week after the long weekend. The percussion band played at the Dutch Reformed Church Florandia, where the church's elderly held a gathering and handed a cash donation over to Alma School. The orchestra was treated like kings and queens.

Both the choir and percussion band performed at the Soup and Sherry evening on Friday, 19 June. The audience enjoyed our children's performances very much. Thanks to all the parents who had to drive especially to pick your child up after the show !!

HOSPITALITY STUDIES CLASS - GROUP 20 EXCURSION TO MORNING STAR HOTEL

The children were spoiled with a delicious full buffet breakfast. Then they were taken to the hotel's two kitchens where the head chef of each kitchen explained to them what happens there.

They were shown how the bookings were made at the reception and how they knew how much space is available. Lastly they were taken to the rooms where they were shown how to make the beds and to replace the toiletries daily.

Casual Day

Spring into Action

for persons with disabilities

Time waits for no man and with the cold creeping in everywhere, we can hardly believe that Spring is actually just around the corner!

And this year we truly have something to look forward to, because in 2015 Alma School will Spring into Action for the National Casual Day Project!

Thousands of individuals and organisations nationwide pulled together in 2014 to collect more than R28 million in aid of persons with disabilities - we are so proud of Alma School' parents who worked together so enthusiastically to help us sell more than 28 000 stickers !

THANK YOU SO VERY MUCH!

Let us try for 30 000 stickers!

Please let us know if you are willing to sell stickers to your family, friends and colleagues!
