Casual Day™ Lowlit Dag

For persons with disabilities

Time waits for no man and with the cold creeping in everywhere, we can hardly believe that Spring is actually just around the corner! And this year we truly have something to look forward to, because in 2015 Alma School will Spring into Action for the National Casual Day Project!

Thousands of individuals and organisations pulled together in 2014 to collect more than R28 million in aid of persons with disabilities - we thank you, the parents of Alma School for your huge effort. You helped us to sell more than 28 000 stickers for the project!

SAVE THIS DATE : 4 SEPTEMBER 2015 - CASUAL DAY IS 21 YEARS OLD

We ask that you line up your family, friends, colleagues, your hairdresser, doctor, chemist, garden services, nail technician, milk man, mail man and the whole world to help us sell Casual Day stickers!

Please complete the tear-off slip if we can send you stickers to sell on the school's behalf.

There are also lovely golf shirts, fashion goggles, paper masks and caps for sale. You can speak to Andria on (012) 335 0252 regarding any orders you want to place.

Casual Day greetings
