As always, we love this time of year, because we know it marks the preparation for our favourite day of the year! Of course, it is CASUAL DAY held this year on 2 SEPTEMBER 2016!

We are going for gold and are set to UP OUR GAME this year to achieve record funds raised in aid of the very special disabled children in Alma School.

Thousands of people and organisations worked together to raise more than R28 million in 2015. A BIG THANK YOU to Alma School's parents who supported and contributed to the project to enable us to sell more than 23,000 stickers!

DIARISE THE DATE NOW!

CASUAL DAY: 2 SEPTEMBER 2016

We again ask that you approach your family, friends, colleagues, your hairdresser, doctor, rugby team mates, coach...and just about the whole world to help sell Casual Day stickers!

Without you, our attempts are useless ... like playing chess on your own or rugby without the rest of the team.

Please complete the tear off slip if you would like to buy some stickers. We also have some caps @ R50.

This includes a R10 sticker.

Contact Andria on (012) 335-0252 to place your order.

CRICKET

On Friday, 12 August 2016, Alma's cricket team played a match at Uitkoms Care Centre (for adults with mental disabilities). Everybody was very eager to go. We batted first and our boys and girls were great! Some nice 4's were played. Congratulations to Nathan who was the only one who declared at 30 runs. Well done, keep it up Nathan!!! After a short break, we started fielding. We had to work hard, but were able to stop a few good balls. When all the overs were finished, we waited anxiously for the results. Everybody was so happy to hear that it was a draw at 118 runs each. Congratulations to the boys and girls who participated. You made us so proud!!!

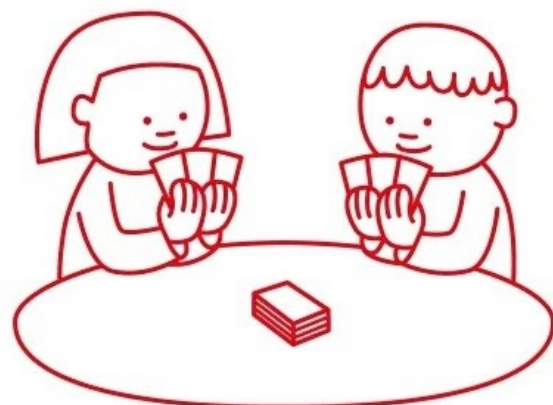

The power of play for lifelong learning

Games with rules

This involves playing games with friends, siblings and parents. It is related to learning a range of social skills, like sharing, taking turns, understanding others' perspectives and so on.

SOCCER

Alma Soccer teams were invited to Pretoria School to play soccer on Thursday, 18 August 2016.

We took 4 teams. They all kicked, passed and defended so well. The results are as follow:

Team 1 - Alma won 5-0;

Team 2 - Pretoria won 4-0;

Team 3 - Pretoria won 2-0;

Team 4 - Alma won 2-0

Our boys played so well.

You make us proud!!!
