THANKSGIVING CONCERT —11 NOVEMBER 2016

Friday evening was a memorable evening. It was memorable because of the beautiful Christmas music, brought to us by the magnificent voices of two of our parents, George and Riana. It was memorable because of the powerful Christmas message, brought to us by the cross, the wheelchair underneath it and the frail body of a child portraying the baby Jesus.

It was memorable because of the honest and heartfelt performance of our choir and percussion band.

But lastly, it was memorable because it was the last Christmas concert directed by our beloved principal of 32 years, Mr Zirke Bondesio.

Let the memories of this concert and many before it stay alive in our minds and especially in Mr Bondesio's mind!

Thank you Sir!!

UBUNTU - 11 NOVEMBER 2016

On Friday morning we invited the 2016 sponsors of Alma School, previous teachers of the school and some Alma friends to join us in a thanksgiving morning—UBUNTU. This is when Alma School gets a change to say thank you to everybody who helped us during the past year. The children also had an opportunity to perform their Thanksgiving Concert. These friends of Alma School could also bid Mnr Bondesio farewell.

It was a lovely morning which everybody enjoyed thoroughly!!

DVD – THANKSGIVING CONCERT

BELANGRIKE KENNISGEWING AAN ALLE OUERS

If your child's school and/or transportation fees are not paid up to date by the end of December 2016, the school will be forced to hand over all overdue accounts.

You can be blacklisted if you do not respond to this request. Thank you to each parent who faithfully pay their school fees.

The power of play for lifelong learning

Physical play

This type of play includes running, chasing, wrestling, climbing, kicking and more and is related to children developing whole body and hand-eye-coordination, building strength and endurance and developing emotional and social skills.
